The Tau

July 2018 Volume 10, Number 11

Dear Parishioners,

July is a special month to remember the freedom we have in this country and the sacrifices by so many, especially those who served in our armed forces, for defending this liberty. We are most grateful to all of those who have helped us live in the land of the free.

In our life of faith, our freedom and liberty are derived by separating ourselves from sinful actions and embracing virtuous actions. To this end, our parish has been reflecting on ways to provide greater access to the faithful for the sacrament of reconciliation.

Please know that I am often available to hear confessions if our regularly scheduled times do not fit into your schedule. In addition, families may want to consider their Friday morning and Saturday afternoon activities so that reconciliation can become a part of their routine. As we continue to discern possible times where we can expand our opportunity for reconciliation, we will keep the community posted.

In Christ,

Rev. Patrick A. McLaughlin

“I place trust in God, my Creator, in all things; I love Him with all my heart.”

PRAYER ON INDEPENDENCE DAY

On this Independence Day I am reminded of all those who have sacrificed for my freedom, following the example of Your son, Jesus Christ. Let me not take my freedom, both physical and spiritual, for granted. May I always remember that my freedom was purchased with a very high price. My freedom cost others their very lives. Lord, today, bless those who have served and continue to give their lives for my freedom. With favor and bounty, meet their needs and watch over their families. Help me to live my life in a way that glorifies You. Lord, give me the strength to be a blessing in someone else's life today, and grant me the opportunity to lead others into the freedom that can be found in knowing Christ.

St. Francis PEACE Corp Meeting Minutes
June 14, 2018

Members Present - Sheila and Ryan Goetsch, Justin and Abby Brandl, Carl and Anonda Schneider, Cassie Krings, Diane Zach and Fr. Patrick McLaughlin.

Fr. Pat opened the meeting with a prayer.

Fr Pat shared that the work of the PEACE Corp has been very well received; people like it. The book of blessings has a welcome prayer and departing parishioners prayer. James and Mollie Kriz will partake in the final blessing because they are leaving the parish and hopefully, if/when others leave, they will follow suit.

Fr. Pat led a discussion on what to do in different scenarios when people move into the community and have different circumstances. It was decided, by vote, that all will be personally welcomed; the physical welcome gift may be a little different depending on the circumstance.

- A note will be put in the bulletin asking parishioners to let the office know if someone moves into the community.

Diane Zach and Ryan Goetsch are working on the worship aid, for non-Catholics, to have in back of church. It needs to be user friendly, brief, but helpful for those people who are not used to the customs during the Catholic Mass.

Prayer lists are going to be given out again for Advent. It was decided that new prayer teams will be formed to increase the outreach of prayers to all.

We are running out of lasagnas! We will need to make more lasagnas to give to people during transitions in their life (birth, death, surgery, etc.). We need about 15 people helping out to have it run smoothly. We will be making more on Monday, July 9, at 6:30 PM; all are invited to help!

- A note will be put in the bulletin and Main Street Market will be contacted about getting ingredients.

Cassie Krings shared that she talked to Fr. Pat about Facebook. St. Francis has a Facebook page and Chelsea Werner is going to try to start building it up, and Cassie is going to help with that; doing something like a fun fact to get the page out there in peoples' news feeds.

Upcoming: Faith Milestones
Something in church to help guide/encourage new people in the community to become a St. Francis parishioner.

Respectfully submitted,
Sheila Goetsch

Prayer for Summer

Dear God,
You made the four seasons. Each summer arrives as part of Your perfect pattern and will, yet is unique unto itself. This summer, help me to see not only the enjoyment of vacations, but the joy of Your will. Help me to feel not only the pleasure of a warm sun, but the contentment of a life guided by You. Help me to know, not only the satisfaction of a project completed, but the fulfillment of a heart filled by You. Help me to see you in all things, Lord, in all the seasons of life You give us. Amen.

Prayer for Shelter Against the Storm

"God of heaven and earth, God who carries our lives and the lives of our whole community in Your hands, be with us in the peril of this day/night. Help us to release our anxieties and fears into those same caring hands, knowing in faith that Your will for us is life and everlasting good. Send Your holy angels to watch over us and guard us. May they spread their holy wings to give us shelter against the storm. For You alone, O God, are all good, all life, all love, and that love is for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

A nice evening prayer is to think of the sign of the Cross. As you would go up, think of the high point of the day. Thank God the Father who is the creator of all. As you would go down, think of the low point of the day, where you sinned or didn't do good when you had a chance. Pray to God the Son and ask for forgiveness. As you would go side to side, think of what is worrying you and what you have to do tomorrow, and pray to God the Holy Spirit for wisdom and courage. That's it. Very simple to do and very profound in its effects. Try this for a month and you will be surprised at the difference in your prayer life and in your experiences of God in your daily life.

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and the Brown Scapular

July 16 is the feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. This is in remembrance of the day in 1251 when Mary appeared to St. Simon Stock, a monastic who was living in England. She appeared with the Brown Scapular in hand and uttered these words: “Take, beloved son, this scapular of thy order as a badge of my confraternity and for thee and all Carmelites a special sign of grace; whoever dies in this garment, will not suffer everlasting fire. It is the sign of salvation, a safeguard in dangers, a pledge of peace and of the covenant.”

A “scapular” was originally a type of clothing worn by monks when working. It fit over the shoulders and covered the front and back. The Carmelites were one such group that wore this vestment. Over time, and in light of the apparition of Mary, the scapular became a sign of trust in Mary as well as commitment to Christ. During the middle ages, groups of lay people began to become affiliated with the monastic orders. The orders in turn wanted to give these lay people an outward sign of that affiliation. For the Carmelites, a smaller version of the scapular was developed and worn.

There is much misunderstanding that surrounds the scapular, both in and out of Catholic circles. Some view it as superstitious. Others see it as a good luck charm: if I wear my scapular, I am guaranteed salvation regardless of how I live my life. This is not the case at all. EWTN.com emphasizes that the scapular “must not be understood superstitiously or magically, but in light of Catholic teaching that perseverance in faith, hope and love are required for salvation. The scapular is a powerful reminder of this Christian obligation and of Mary’s promise to help those consecrated to her obtain the grace of final perseverance.”

According to Carmelnet.org, the scapular represents the following spiritual meanings:

- It stands for a commitment to follow Jesus, like Mary, the perfect model of all the disciples of Christ. This commitment finds its origin in baptism by which we become children of God.
- It leads us into the community of Carmel, a community of religious men and women, which has existed in the Church for over eight centuries.
- It reminds us of the example of the saints of Carmel, with whom we establish a close bond as brothers and sisters to one another.

It is an expression of our belief that we will meet God in eternal life, aided by the intercession and prayers of Mary.

Investment with the scapular requires a priest or deacon to place a blessed scapular over a person’s head while reciting a prayer to Mary such as the Hail Mary, Hail Holy Queen, or Memorare. Investment must be done with a cloth scapular, although after that time, the wearer may choose to wear a blessed metal scapular instead.

Prayer to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel

O Most Beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in this my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother.

O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity. There are none that can withstand your power.

O show me herein you are my Mother. O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee. (repeat 3 times)
