

PRE May Newsletter

Teachers	2
First Communion	2

End of the year

I cannot believe this is officially the last newsletter for 2023-2024 year. I had a couple more items I could not wait till next year to share so I decided to sit on my couch one more time to put another newsletter together.

Yes I could be potting some flowers in my pots for outside but that will be there tomorrow night. I could find something on TV but them I am not one to watch much TV.

Since I could not find anything better to do with my time, I guess you are all lucky to be getting one more letter from me.

Sit back and enjoy!

How are we growing in God's love?

Special points of interest:

- Pray daily to the candle.
- Know that Jesus is everywhere.
- God loves you unconditionally.

Prayers

I TESTED THE KIDS OUT ONE LAST TIME FOR THE YEAR. ATTACHED YOU WILL FIND HOW YOUR CHILD/REN DID THIS YEAR WHEN THEY WERE TESTED OUT. I TRIED TO PUT A COMMENT ON EACH STUDENTS PRAYER LIST SO YOU CAN SEE WHERE THEY CAN FOCUS ON OR IF THEY ARE WHERE THEY NEED TO BE FOR NEXT YEAR.

I WOULD ENCOURAGE YOU OVER THE SUMMER TO STILL PRACTICE THESE PRAYERS SO THEY DO NOT FALL BEHIND.

LET ME KNOW IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS ON THIS.

Teachers

I am going to touch on this again as I had a meeting with the teachers that volunteered their time this year to PRE the following Wednesday after PRE was done . I am going to be short several teachers for next year. I really need a couple of you to help out at PRE. I encourage you to give of your time for one year to help out the program. If you help teach, your dues for next year would be waived. I can tell you that you do not have to know everything about our faith in order to teach. The books and/or videos step you through the lessons you present to the kids. The kids are sponges to learn as much as they can about our Faith. If you don't know the answer, you are able to tell them "You know, that is a great question, let me find that answer and I will let you know next week"

Next year, if parents do not step up to help out, unfortunately the classes that I don't have teachers for will have to be taught at home and then we will schedule time each month for them to be tested on.

Trust me, I know none of you want to teach at home so talk with another parent to see if you can team teach (this would be where you take turns teaching each Wednesday night). If we all pull together, we can make this next year a success for all the kids. Call me if you have questions about teaching.

Do you talk to Jesus daily? I bet He would like to hear from you.

Do they know you are Christian by your Love?

What does that mean?

Treat everyone with Love.

2nd Grade—First Holy Communion

Congrats to Aiden who made his First Communion this year. Aiden was the only 2nd grader here at PRE but he was sure excited when it was finally his day to receive Jesus. He told me he was excited to receive Jesus at his Grandma's church. He also told me that he likes the Blood of Jesus and will take it the next time it is available.

Congrats again Aiden, we are very proud of you!!!!
